

Scottish
Cardiac
Society

Spring Meeting 2018 Final Programme
Wednesday 18 April 2018, Dunblane Hydro Hotel

08.50 Registration, tea and coffee

09.25 Introduction and welcome

Dr Hany Eteiba, President, Scottish Cardiac Society

Session 1: Guidelines update

Chair: Mr Dennis Sandeman, Cardiology Nurse Consultant, NHS Fife & Dr Nick Cruden, Consultant Cardiologist & Chairman, SIGN Angina Guidelines

09.30 Angina SIGN guidelines

Dr Colin Petrie, Consultant Cardiologist, NHS Lanarkshire

09.50 ESC Valve guidelines update

Dr Crawford Halliday, Registrar, NHS GG & C

10.10 Cardiac rehabilitation guidelines

Dr Iain Todd, Consultant in Cardiovascular Rehabilitation, NHS Lothian

10.30-11.10 Tea and coffee

Session 2: TAVI

Chair: Dr Hany Eteiba, President, Scottish Cardiac Society

11.10 5 years of TAVI: An introduction

Dr Nick Cruden, Consultant Cardiologist & Chairman, SIGN Angina Guidelines

11.35 Virtual TAVI MDT: Unrealistic medicine?

Mr Kelvin Lim, Consultant Cardiothoracic Surgeon, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh, Dr Anne Scott, Consultant Cardiologist, Borders General Hospital, Melrose & Dr Mitchell Lindsay, Consultant Cardiologist, Glasgow

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

Session 3: Legal session

Chairs: Professor Stuart Pringle, Immediate Past President, SCS & Dr Clare Murphy, Consultant Cardiologist, Royal Alexandra Hospital, Paisley

13.30 Cardiovascular fitness to drive

Dr Mike Griffith, Chair, DVLA Panel for Cardiology

14.00 Cardiac consent issues

Dr James Thorpe, Medicolegal Adviser to Medical Protection Society

14.30 – 15.00 Tea and coffee

Session 4: Stroke prevention in atrial fibrillation

Chairs: Dr Paul Broadhurst, Consultant Cardiologist & Dr Caroline Scally, Aberdeen Royal Infirmary

15.00 Cardioembolic Stroke: a Neurologist's perspective

Dr Terence Quinn, Senior Clinical Lecturer & Honorary Consultant, University of Glasgow

15.20 BHF session: A focus on atrial fibrillation in Scotland

Mr Richard Forsyth, Heath Service Engagement Lead, British Heart Foundation

15.30 DOACs: are they all the same?

Dr David Northridge, Consultant Cardiologist, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

15.40 Which DOAC for which patient?

Dr Andrew Docherty, Consultant Cardiologist, NHS Lanarkshire

16.00 LAA Closure: Does it have a role?

Dr Miles Behan, Consultant Cardiologist, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

16.10 Summary and closing remarks

Dr Hany Eteiba, President, Scottish Cardiac Society

16.15 Close

The SCS gratefully acknowledges both logistical and financial support from the following companies: Amgen, AstraZeneca, Bayer, Boehringer Ingelheim, Daiichi Sankyo, Medtronic, Novartis, Pfizer. These exhibitors will have a promotional stand at this event.